Activity/Level	Age	Description
Mini Tennis	4-6	For beginners and kids with some experience. Basic racquet fundamentals, ball skills and hand/eye co-ordination are developed through various games and drills.
Beginner to Low-Intermediate	6-9 10-15 Adult	For players with little or no tennis experience. The fundamentals of tennis will be introduced. Players will learn the basics of rallying, hitting forehands, backhands and volleys. The serve and scoring system will also be introduced. It is recommended that players take 2 sessions of Beginner before moving to Intermediate.
Intermediate	6-9 10-15 Adult	For players who have successfully completed beginner level as per the Tennis Skills Levels booklet or with prior tennis experience. In this level, players will continue to improve their technique of forehands, backhands, volleys and serves. Rallying consistency, court positioning, return of serve and overhead smash will be covered as well.
Advanced	Adult	For players who have completed intermediate level or who have a lot of tennis experience. Players should be able to rally and serve full court as well as keep score. A specific skill will be honed each class followed by 30 minutes of match play.
Semi-Private	All	These are suited for players who would like more individual attention or to improve certain aspects of their game. Participant to instructor ratio is a maximum of 4 to 1.
½ Day Camps	4-6 6-9 10-15	Participants spend 2.5 hours each morning on the tennis courts. Each day consists of warm up, footwork, skills development, tennis games and cool down.
